FAMILY TICKET

The family ticket is available from the guest information centres called the "Swiss Grand Canyon". You can purchase tickets for the Ruinaulta gorge in all its glory. This route reveals in style why the Rhine gorge is also called the "Swiss Grand Canyon". It will create memories that last a lifetime.

For those who have not yet tried a via ferrata, the Pinut-Gurtel-Bergsteig is the ideal route for first-time climbers, offering more than 400 meters of climbing on the starting level. A via ferrata is a remarkable way to experience nature first hand, with all the extraordinary natural wonders and allow you to step back in time.

One highlights of the Pinut-Gurtel-Bergsteig is a visit to the World Heritage Site Sardona. The sandy beds give the illusion of a Swiss desert. An information point is available in the Lower Segnesboden. As you approach the entrance to the Ruinaulta gorge, you pass along a path which is only suitable for hiking.

Visitors can also hike through the Ruinaulta gorge, which is surrounded by huge chasms and makes one feel small. The views over the Rhine gorge will stay with you for a lifetime. You can also hike through the Felsbach gorge, which is enclosed by steeply rising walls and is surrounded by huge chasms. The terrain is steeper and the path is more demanding than in the Ruinaulta gorge. The Felsbach gorge has an additional viewing platform with an adventure trail surrounding it.

You can hike directly from Laax to Lake Cauma at their own pace. Routes that are pram-friendly are marked with a yellow star. To hike from Flims to Lake Cauma, the Ruinaulta tour (including bus and train) from the guest information centre is recommended.
